QUESTION 1

Dracula is a Diploma in Information Technology student at one of the local colleges. He wrote a malware program which installs itself on a Windows computer when the computer's web browser visited a particular compromised server. Dracula's program is able to do so due to a weakness in the Internet Explorer browser.

Once the malware program installs itself on a computer, it would be able to steal the login IDs and passwords of websites which were visited by the browser and forward them to a server that Dracula controls. Using the stolen IDs and passwords, Dracula then makes unauthorised purchases on several e-commerce websites.

Discuss what crimes Dracula has committed.

QUESTION 2

Ursela set up an e-commerce website, also called Ursela, selling luxury jewellery. Ariel bought a pair of silver bangles from Ursela for RM400. A few days later, the bangles arrived via Pos Ekspres. When Ariel opened the packaging, instead of finding a pair of nice silver bangles, Ariel found a pair of cheap plastic bangles in silver paint which is not worth more than RM10. Ariel asks Ursela to refund her money, but Ursela simply ignored her request.

Advise Ariel on whether Ursela has committed any crime.

QUESTION 5

Ali bin Baba, who is a Muslim, was discussing some religious issues on Facebook. The discussion turned heated and Ali posted the following message on Facebook: "All kafir go to hell."

Candy Tan, who is a non-Muslim, saw the message on Facebook and became upset. She lodged a police report against Ali bin Baba.

After a thorough investigation, including tracing the message to Ali bin Baba's smart phone, a police office submitted a report to the Deputy Public Prosecutor. The Deputy Public Prosecutor now contemplates prosecuting Ali bin Baba for the message on Facebook that he had posted.

Discuss the criminal provision that may be used against Ali bin Baba.
